REPORTS OF OFFICERS:

Mayor:

- Requested information from MODOT regarding Bermuda Bridge at Stanwood exit ramp from W/B I-70.
- Complaint hotline for Airport noise – had 11 complaints from Normandy residents. Hotline number is 551-5156.
- Family Courts has split Normandy School District into 2 groups because of overwhelming response for volunteers. Volunteers from Normandy are in the North District, to include volunteers representing Bel-Nor, Bel-Ridge, Bellerive, Greendale, Hanley Hills, Norwood Court, Pasadena Hills, Pasadena Park, and unincorporated St. Louis County.

City Council:

- Is city going to protest the 2000 Census figures? Yes, we have up to 2 years to protest.
- TIF meeting is set for March 20th at 6:00 p.m.
- Serious problems with postal service. Can the city set up a meeting with the Post Office officials to address the problems?
- New school – when will it be opened and could we ask Mr. Collins to come talk about ongoing problems at the Middle School? New school will probably not be open for classes until next September and will try to set meeting up with school officials.
- Change April meeting from the 2nd to the 9th, motion made by Councilman Vogt; seconded by Councilwoman Dailey. Upon voice vote, the motion was carried to approve moving the Council meeting to April 9th, 2002.
- Question regarding the ordinance for Historic Preservation. Will schedule work session before the May meeting
- At the I-70/Bermuda exit – could a sign be erected to say “Cross Traffic does not stop”?

City Treasurer:

- Report given for January 31, 2001 by George Liyeos, City Administrator, as Ms. Spellmeyer is out of town.

Chief of Police:

- Police Department has 2 new officers on the street.
- Officer Victor Brinkman is now full-time DARE officer and is also assisting with Code Enforcement and Neighborhood Watch. He is teaching DARE classes at Bermuda School, St. Ann's School and St. Vincent's. He is also considered the Community Resource Officer.
